

Dr. Sunam Gyamtso Tenzin has been blessed with many Divine interactions with Bhagavan Baba from childhood, having been called into His physical fold in the 1970s. He was a student of Sri Sathya Sai Institutions from high school through his doctoral studies. He is a wonderful speaker and a versatile musician with talents in singing, composing, and playing on the harmonium, tabla, accordion and much more. Being musically blessed, he has been inspired to compose many bhajans which have become part of regular bhajan sessions at Sai Centers around the world. These include bhajans such as:

Jaya Shri Ganesha Vigna Naasha Gajanana
Ayodhya Shiromani Dasharatha Rama
Lambodhara Hey Gauri Nandana
Raghukula Bhooshana Rajeeva Nayana
Araja Suno Mere Parama Kripalu
Anupama Sundara Nanda Kishore
Vaidehi Priya Vaikunta Rama
Bhava Bhaya Bhanjana Sesha Shayana Hari

Jaya Kailashapathe Shiva Shankara
Karuna Sindhu Dasaratha Nandana
Sai Baba Sakala Bhuvana Ke Daata
Mata Maheshwari Tribhuvana Janani
Kaushalya Nandana Vaidehi Mohana
Karuna Niketana Bhakta Sakha Prabhu
Dwarakanatha Madhusudhana Ghanashyama and many many more....

Sunam was instrumental in composing the music for many of the plays and dramas that Bhagawan wrote and directed for the students. He currently lives in Gangtok, Sikkim, India.
